During the press conference the organisers of this event announced that the various activities on the beach will include beach volley, handball, badminton, golf and subbuteo. Every game will have its own instructor, hence anyone can participate in these activities.

The organisers also mentioned how the different sports organisations, their respective members and the general public who will be participating in these events will also have the opportunity to become familiar with EU funds that are available to them in order to build partnerships with other foreign sports organisations.
