Eurodesk Malta Updates - Issue No. 11

Erasmus+ results

Dear friends,

As you are well aware, recently the European Union Programmes Agency published the results of Key Action 1 - youth sector.

While we congratulate all the organisations who had their project proposal granted, we would like to let you know that the Communications Team is in a position to meet with the representatives of the organisations who for some reason got their application form rejected. Should you wish to take this opportunity, kindly contact us on communications.eupa@gov.mt

InternsGoPro

InternsGoPro is there to boost youth unemployment. It is a social enterprise that promotes internships that help students and graduates develop skills and get a job. It also aims to improve the rights and working conditions of interns across the European Union.

A beginner's guide to EU funding

Created by the European Commission, the guide targets small companies (SMEs), non-governmental organisations (NGOs), young people, researchers, farmers, public bodies and other categories that can benefit from it.

With references to websites about EU funding opportunities, available for the period 2014-2020, this guide provides basic information, especially on how and where to apply and other general rules.

Ye! online community of young entrepreneurs

<http://yecomunity.com/en> is an online community of young entrepreneurs aged between 16 and 30 years.

The platform provides young entrepreneurs with business knowledge, an online community and social network, a coaching programme, and links to funding.
